He designs and manufactures some of his furniture in Southeast Asia and China. All of the chairs and sofas were upholstered in Jim Thompson's silks.

Most of what he carries are museum grade antiques and artifacts, that had me drooling. The prices had me having mini heart attacks! I wished I could have taken about 1000 pictures, but these photos from his website are pretty fantastic. My favorite thing I saw? He had stacks of old British crocodile trunks which I couldn't stop touching! (which sadly aren't on his website)
